THURSDAY, July 8, 1762.

PARIS, March 12.

ABOUT the Middle of laſt Month, as a wealthy Citizen was walking on the Thuilleries, a Perſon came up to him, and bid him be upon his Guard, for that Night he would be murdered. The Citizen, making a Report of this Incident to the Lieutenant of the Police, was offered a Guard, which he refuſed. And without ſeeming to take any Notice of what had happened, retired after Supper, as uſual, to his Bed-Chamber, having furniſhed himſelf with Fire-Arms.——At Midnight Three Men actually entered the Room.——One of them he Shot dead, and with a ſecond Shot broke the Arm of another. The Third ran away.——The Perſon killed proved to be his own Son, and the wounded Perſon his Nephew, who is now in Priſon along with the Third Aſſaſſin, who was taken and proved to be a Servant.

Munſter, April 21. This Moment we hear, that the Caſtle of Arenſberg was taken the 19th at 2 o'Clock in the Afternoon. The following is the Account we have received of what paſſed on that Occaſion. Our Batteries were finiſhed and mounted on the 18th Inſtant at 11 o'Clock in the Forenoon; upon which the French Commandant, M. Muret, offered to capitulate, on Condition to march out of the Place on the 21ſt with all the Military Honours, in caſe he was not relieved during that Interval of Time. As it was known that the French Troops were in Motion, this Delay could not be granted him on the Part of his Serene Highneſs.——The Night between the 18th and 19th every thing was quiet on both Sides; but on the 19th, at 6 o'Clock in the Morning, our Batteries began to play. At 9 o'Clock, before any Part of the Place was ſet on Fire, the Hereditary Prince ordered an Offer to be made to the Commandant, to march out with all the Military Honours, and two Pieces of Cannon; but M. Muret having haughtily declined this, we began to redouble our Fire; and about Noon the Caſtle was in Flames, and the Town likewiſe, which increaſed in a ſhort Time to that Degree, that M. Muret cried out for Mercy; and getting over the Walls of the Caſtle with his Garriſon, ſurrendered at Diſcretion, to the Number of 9 Officers, and 231 private Men, and 26 Pieces of Cannon. The Enemy had not one ſingle Man killed, nor we neither; but a Captain of the Britiſh Legion has had his Legs ſhot off.

Hamburgh, April 20. We have received Advice, that a Ceſſation of Arms, for two Months, was ſigned the 7th Inſtant at Ribnitz, in the Dutchy of Mecklenburgh Schwerin, by the Prince of Wurtemburg on the Part of his Pruſſian Majeſty, and by Leiut. Gen. Ehrenſchwerdt on that of the King of Sweden. A ſeparate Convention was likewiſe agreed upon the ſame Day at Ribnitz, for the free Intercourſe of Commerce, both by Sea and Land, which was ſigned by the Pruſſian Lieutenant-Colonel L'Homme de Courbierre, and by the Swediſh Adjutant-General de Grevenhagen, and the firſt Auditor Fiſcher.

The Daniſh Army keeps the ſame Poſition near Lubeck; and the Head-Quarters are ſtill at Morie.

Hague, April 25. The French Troops along the Rhine, have been for ſome Days paſt in Alarm, upon an Excurſion made by the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, the Detail of which is not yet come in: We are informed, however, in the mean while, that his Serene Highneſs had attacked the Caſtle of Arenſberg on the 19th; after ſome Firing, he offered the Honours of War to Muret, the Commanding Officer, and his Garriſon, which he refuſed; and the Firing being renewed, he was in a few Hours afterwards obliged to ſurrender at Diſcretion. The French looked upon this Poſt as very important for their Communication between Weſel and Duſſeldorp; and the Loſs of it will be very inconvenient to them, whilſt they are preparing to open the Campaign.

Hamburgh, April 13. The Head-Quarters of the Count de St. Germain, Commander in Chief of the Daniſh Troops, are now at Morie, about Half a German Mile from Lubeck.

Hague, April 16. The Light Troops of his Majeſty's Army in Weſtphalia have been lately very ſucceſsful in ſeveral Skirmiſhes with the Enemy. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was marching from Munſter, as we hear by the laſt Letters, upon ſome Expedition.

Ratiſbon, April 15. Letters from Vienna, and other Places, adviſe, that the two Armies which the Empreſs Queen will have in the Field before the End of this Month, will be compoſed of 125,000 Men; that the Principal will be in Sileſia of 95,000 Men; and that the remaining 30,000 will act in Saxony, where they will join the 12,000 commanded by Prince Xavier, and the Army of the Empire, which, at moſt, will conſiſt of 6000 Men. This makes 143,000 Men at the Diſpoſal of the Court of Vienna, which will be augmented by ſome new Corps furniſhed by Hungary, and the Hereditary Countries belonging to the Houſe of Auſtria, which will ſerve to ſupply the Loſſes which are the inſeparable Conſequences of every Campaign. The Pruſſian Forces conſiſt in all of 142,000 Men.

Cadiz, April 1. We have juſt received Advice, that the Court of Liſbon has at length given a definitive Anſwer to that of Madrid. We have not yet learned the Particulars of it; but it is certain that the Spaniſh Miniſter at Liſbon has left that Court without taking Leave; from which it is eaſy to know the Side which his Moſt Faithful Majeſty has taken.

LONDON, April 20.

Yeſterday there was an Expreſs from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, which, we are well aſſured, brings Advice, that the Rioters there are quite diſperſed, that near 100 of them were taken, and the Whole afraid of each other; that thoſe who aſſumed any Command amongſt them, will be immediately tried, and, if proved guilty, be executed; and the others diſpoſed of in ſuch Manner as will beſt ſecure the Tranquility of that Kingdom.

A ſpecial Commiſſion is abſolutely gone to Dublin for the Trials of the Rioters, among whom are a Franciſcan Friar, and ſix or ſeven Prieſts.

The Emiſſaries and Tools of the French and Spaniards, are very aſſiduous in aſſerting that they intended an Invaſion of ſome Part of his Majeſty's Dominions; this ſeems to be only like the laſt Efforts of a deſperate Gameſter; but that they will ever be able to effect it, ſeems highly improbable. The French have no more than 9 Ships of the Line, and two Frigates at Rochfort, which are watched by Lord Howe, and as they have no other Fleets to cover an Embarkation, their flat-bottomed Boats without one would only come to certain Deſtruction. The greateſt Danger ſeems from the Spaniards; but when it is conſidered that by their own Accounts they have only 10 or 11 Men of War at Ferrol, and thoſe not well manned, that Force is but trifling, compared with our own in the Channel. And Admiral Saunders will doubtleſs look after thoſe at Cadiz, where is ſaid to be their chief Force in Europe, and prevent any others from joining them at any diſtant Ports.

We are aſſured, that his Majeſty has received very agreeable News from the Court of Denmark, and that, in all Probability, his good Offices will prevent a Rupture between that Court and Ruſſia; in Conſequence of which, we may hope for a ſpeedy Peace in Germany, as it will be Madneſs in the Empreſs Queen to attempt to carry on the War againſt the King of Pruſſia, now he has got 70,000 Men extraordinary to join that Army which alone kept all her Troops at Bay laſt Campaign.

April 22. The Amſterdam Gazette informs us, that all the Officers of the Neapolitan Troops were ordered to join their Troops in three Days, on Pain of being caſhiered; that ſeveral Regiments were to be ſent to Sicily; and that the Batteries erected to defend the Coaſts of Naples are finiſhed, and planted with Cannon.

Private Letters from Liſbon adviſe, that the King of Portugal has 10 Sail of Men of War of the Line in the Tagus, and 40,000 Men marching towards the Frontiers of Spain; notwithſtanding which, a general Opinion prevailed that a Neutrality would ſoon take Place between the Spaniards and Portugueſe.

The Troops deſigned for Portugal are in Readineſs for Embarkation, from which Time they are to be paid by the King of Portugal, after the ſame Rate as the Engliſh Eſtabliſhment.

According to ſome Accounts from Spain, the Land Forces of that Monarchy amounted to 80,000 Men at the preſent King's Acceſſion to the Throne, but now conſiſt of 140,000.

The laſt Letters from Breſlau aſſert, that the King of Pruſſia was in perfect Health, and appeared daily upon the Parade, having recruited his Army in an extraordinary Manner. Theſe Letters add, that he was caſting Cannon, &c. all the Winter: And that it was expected he would open the Campaign the Beginning of this Month with as fine an Army as ever.

April 24. By Advices from the Hague we learn, that the Differences between Denmark and Ruſſia were nearly adjuſted, under the Mediation of Great-Britain and Pruſſia; and that a Negociation is in great Forwardneſs for an Alliance, in Conſequence of which Denmark is to furniſh England with 12 Ships of the Line and Frigates, and to put into Britiſh Pay 25000 Danes, who are to join the Allied Army; that England is to pay Denmark Fifteen Millions of Florins (about 1,250,000 l. Sterling) which Money will be paid again by Denmark to the Emperor of Ruſſia, who is willing to give up his Claim to Holſtein in Conſideration of a certain Sum of Money, the Remainder of which is to be paid at the Terms ſettled in the Treaty now on the Carpet.

Other Letters inform us, that a Treaty of Peace between Ruſſia and Pruſſia is at length actually ſigned; that Denmark hath nothing further to apprehend, ſince the Ruſſian Troops had received Orders to march back immediately againſt the Coronation, at which Time there were Fears of ſome Diſturbances ariſing.

It is now reported, that only two Britiſh Brigades will be withdrawn from Germany, which are to be ſent to Portugal.

General Cornwallis's Baggage is put on board a Man of War, and he is ſpeedily to embark for his Government of Gibraltar.

We hear that Diſpatches of great Conſequence are received from Portugal, which occaſioned the Meeting of the Council Yeſterday; and it is ſaid, that a Reſolution is taken to ſend thither an additional Body of Troops, which are ordered to be in Readineſs to embark. They are to be convoyed thither by Sir Edward Hawke.

Advices from Verſailles bring a Confirmation, that a Body of French Troops is to be ſent to Spain, and fix it at 7 Regiments, making 13 Battallions.

Yeſterday a Number of eight and twelve Inch Mortars, Cohorns, Handſpikes, and divers other Sorts of military Implements, were put on board Barges at the Tower Wharff, which fell down with the Afternoon Tide, to ſhip the ſame on board the Tranſport Veſſels that are under ſailing Orders for Gibraltar.

The Friendſhip, Baird, from Glaſgow to Virginia, is taken by the Emerald and Pearl, two French Frigates, and carried into Rochelle.

On the 12th Inſtant the Houſe of Commons in Ireland ordered, "That a Committee be appointed to enquire into the Cauſes and Progreſs of the ſubſiſting Popiſh Inſurrection in the Province of Munſter, and to conſider of a moſt effectual Means to prevent the like for the Future."

We hear that by the Treaty lately concluded between our Court and Portugal, the Troops which are going, from hence, for the Defence of that Kingdom, are to remain in the Pay of his Portugueſe Majeſty for three Years, certain.

The Remainder of the 12,000 Troops going to Portugal, are ordered to be embarked with the utmoſt Expedition, his Portugueſe Majeſty having moſt earneſtly requeſted immediate Aſſiſtance from England.

Some Letters from Liſbon aſſert, that his Portugueſe Majeſty has openly declared himſelf in Favour of the Engliſh Nation.

The laſt Letters from Liſbon, dated the 7th, adviſe, that Lord Tyrawley was ſet out from thence, to examine the Fortifications of the Frontier Towns of that Kingdom, and to put them in a proper Poſture of Defence.

The Captain, a 70 Gun Ship, and the Princeſs Mary of 60, are fitting at Chatham with all poſſible Expedition, to go and lie in Sea-Reach, for the Defence of the River.

April 27. The Leyden Gazette ſays, the Spaniſh Troops entered the Kingdom of Portugal the 6th of this Month.

It is now ſaid for certain, that the Allied Army will ſpeedily be reinforced by a very conſiderable Body of Ruſſians and Pruſſians, to act as Occaſion ſhall require.

Some Letters from Ratiſbon, by this Day's Mail, give an Account, that the Court of Vienna reſolving to continue the War, has acceded to the Alliance between France and Spain.

There is Advice from Cadiz, that after a Council of War held at that Place, Orders were given for fitting out 12 Fireſhips.

From Ratiſbon they write, that there are no Hopes of an Accommodation between the Empreſs Queen and the King of Pruſſia.

The Advices by this Mail ſeem to confirm, that the Diſputes between Denmark and Ruſſia will be amicably accommodated.

The Hague Gazette ſays, that on Wedneſday laſt, the 21ſt Inſt. a Dunkirk Privateer, commanded by Capt. Wilde, of 2 Guns, and 25 Men, with an Engliſh Prize in Company, being chaced by an Engliſh Veſſel, ran aſhore with her Prize at Schevening, Half a League from the Hague. The Engliſh Captain, perceiving that it would be impoſſible to ſeize the Privateer, or ſave the Prize, manned his long Boat, and ſet Fire to the Privateer, the Crew of which had left her, and gone to the Hague.

Advice has been received that Admiral Corniſh had ſailed from Madraſs in Auguſt laſt, with Land Forces on board, to attack the French Iſlands of Bourbon and Mauritius, in Conjunction with a Fleet and Land Forces from England, under the Command of Commodore Keppel (thoſe which were employed againſt Belleiſle) but on his Arrival off the Iſle of Bourbon, not meeting the Reinforcement he expected, he ſteered to the Cape of Good Hope.

The Shannon Man of War, Captain Brathwaite, met a Ship near the Iſle of Wight, bound from Cadiz to Holland, with ſeveral Engliſh Paſſengers on board. Capt. Brathwaite took the Paſſengers on board his own Ship, and brought them to Portſmouth.——Theſe Gentlemen ſay, they ſailed from Cadiz the 29th ult. and that a Ship was arrived there from the Havannah, with an Account, that the Diſtemper, called the black Vomit, raged amongſt the Spaniſh Sailors on board their Fleet, and had carried off great Numbers.

Col. Graham's Regiment of Highlanders is marched for the Weſt of Scotland, in order to embark for Ireland.

In the Night between the 3d and 4th Inſt. the Stage Waggon between Cologne and Frankfort was robbed by a Gang of Banditti well armed, of Money and Jewels to the Amount of 40,000 Florins; 10,000 of which the Elector of Triers was ſending to his Troops in the Army of the Empire.

They write from Hamburgh, that from the 6th to the 18th of March, upwards of 1200 Perſons at Warſaw were carried off by Fevers.

By Letters from Liſbon, dated the 9th Inſt. by the Hind Man of War, we have an Account, that his Portugueſe Majeſty had declared, that he would abide by the Treaties ſubſiſting between him and the Court of Great-Britain, and that Spain might purſue what Means ſhe thought proper; but, if her Deſigns were to attack him, he would defend himſelf in the beſt Manner he was able; the ſame Letters add, that the Portugueſe, have 20,000 Men in Arms (excluſive of thoſe already marched to the Frontiers) which will be encamped in the Heart of the Kingdom, to be ready to act as Occaſion ſhall require.

Letters from Liſbon of the 7th Inſtant adviſe, that the Portugueſe Court of Admiralty had appointed a great Number of Land Men, to take Poſt as Lieutenants on board the Squadron which was fallen down to Belleiſle, in order to proceed to Sea, to act againſt the Spaniards as Occaſion may require. The ſaid Squadron is to be commanded by three Admirals.

April 29. The King has given Orders, that his Chaplains in waiting do attend him, and the Queen (who now begins to underſtand the Engliſh Language) every Evening, to perform Divine Service in their own private Apartments; and it is to be hoped this pious, this very excellent Example will be followed by the Nobility, and thoſe who love to imitate the Great, or have a Regard to their own, or Family's preſent or future Happineſs.

We hear a great many Gentlemen are going Volunteers on the Expedition now fitting out, under the Command of Sir Edward Hawke.

It is ſaid Advice is received, that the ſeven Men of War, which about three Months ſince ſuddenly departed from Portſmouth, are arrived off Jamaica, under the Command of Admiral Sir Piercy Brett, who has joined Commodore Forreſt; ſo that there is now 15 Sail of the Line off there, beſides Frigates. Theſe, with thoſe under Admirals Rodney and Pocock, if he joins them, will make 40 Sail of the Line of Battle Ships, beſides 15 Frigates, and all within five Days Sail of each other.

Letters from Madrid of the 30th ult. ſay, that as the Court of Portugal liſtened to the Inſinuations of Lord Tyrawley, his Catholic Majeſty would be obliged to order his Troops to enter the Portugueſe Territories; and that they only waited for the Return of a Meſſenger, who they expected from Liſbon in 4 or 5 Days from the above Date, with his Moſt Faithful Majeſty's final Anſwer for whom he will declare.

Letters from France, by the Way of Holland, adviſe, that the Artificers at Breſt are working at double Pay, in preparing a great Number of Boats on a new Conſtruction, quite different from any Plan yet invented; they are to carry 300 Men each, and 12 Guns: They likewiſe add, that ſeveral more are preparing at Dunkirk, Rochfort, &c. and all on different Conſtructions.

Private Letters from Paris ſay, that they are very confident there, that the Spaniards will be ſoon Maſters of Portugal; and comfort themſelves greatly in ſuppoſing, that ſuch Conqueſt will be ſo fatal a Blow to our Commerce, and have ſuch an Effect on our public Funds, as will diſable us for continuing the War, and compel us to offer ſuch Terms of Peace as their Grand Monarque ſhall think reaſonable.

Extract of a Letter from Pool, dated April 28.

"By a Perſon lately arrived here from Havre de Grace, we are informed, that the French have in that Port ſeveral flat-bottomed Boats, which are 31 Feet in Breadth, and proportionable in Length, carrying each two 24*-Pounders, draw* 3 Feet Water, and rigged in the Dogger Faſhion; but it is thought they cannot live at Sea. They there ſtrongly talk of invading England, and their Soldiers are promiſed great Rewards."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, April 23.

"The Affair that hath juſt now happened at Schevening, between a French Privateer and an Engliſh Veſſel, makes a great Noiſe at this Place, not only on Account of the Threats of the Engliſh to cut in Pieces ſeveral of the Inhabitants of Schevening, who were endeavouring to ſave the Rigging and other Effects on board the Privateer when ſhe was ſet on Fire, but on Account of the Infringement of the Neutrality of this Republic. We daily expect a Memorial on the Part of France, demanding Satisfaction for this Violation of our Neutrality, and an Indemnification of the Loſſes which the French Capt. may have ſuffered.

"There muſt be intereſting Negociations on the Carpet; for ſince Monday upwards of 20 Couriers have paſſed through this Place, going and coming from different Courts. And as a certain Court is labouring to make a ſeparate Peace, a general Peace will perhaps be concluded when it is little expected: Some People even aſſure us, that a Negociation is actually ſet on Foot between France and England, by Means of a Perſon of Diſtinction, who was a Priſoner of War at London.

"Mean while they write from Paris, that the Court certainly meditates a Deſcent in Scotland; and that for this End they were equipping the neceſſary Shipping with all poſſible Secrecy."

She brings an Account, that the Ambaſſador from Spain had left that Court, and that the Spaniſh Troops were but four Miles from the Frontiers of Portugal, and that the Portugueſe Army was about four Miles from the Boundaries.

The laſt Advices from Vienna inform us, that all Thoughts of an Accommodation with his Pruſſian Majeſty were, for the preſent, laid aſide, and that the Empreſs Queen was making the utmoſt Efforts to have ſuch an Army in the Field this Campaign, as might compenſate for the Defection of the Ruſſians and Swedes; and that the Imperial Troops would be joined by a conſiderable Corps of French Forces.

It is affirmed that there is Advice in Town, which confirms the Account of the Spaniards having entered the Kingdom of Portugal, and conſequently declared War; however, it is certain that many People, who have had Orders for different Sorts of Goods, have ſtopped their Hand, not chuſing to ſend them at ſuch a critical Juncture.

A Peaſant lately died in Poland in the 157th Year of his Age. He was in his 30th Year when he married his firſt Wife, with whom he lived 58 Years, and had by her Six Children. He married again within a Year after her Death, and by this Second Wife had ſeven Children. She died, after living with him 55 Years. Since her Death he has lived 24 Years a Widower. During the whole Courſe of his long Life he had never been ill, and in the coldeſt Seaſons was always lightly clothed. Till within 12 Years of his Death he conſtantly worked as a Day Labourer, and his Appetite failed him only Eight Days before he died. A ſhort Illneſs then put an End to his Life.

Gowland, Maſter, from Maryland, laden with Tobacco, which was a Prize to the abovementioned Privateer. They have alſo taken the Curieux Privateer, belonging to St. Maloes, of* 6 Guns, and 33 Men; and have ſent them all three to Plymouth.

Briſtol, April 24. Laſt Sunday his Majeſty's Frigate the Æolus arrived at Plymouth from a Cruiſe, and brought in the Malouin Privateer, of St. Maloes, of 12 Guns, and 84 Men; and another Privateer of 6 Guns, and 22 Men; alſo a Ship from Maryland, Prize to the Malouin, which ſhe retook.

The four Packet Boats that were detained in Spain, are arrived at Falmouth, by Permiſſion of that Court. It is ſaid all the Engliſh Ships detained in that Kingdom will ſoon be releaſed.

By the above Packets there is Advice, that ſeveral great Dons have been taken into Cuſtody, for ſpeaking too freely of the War between England and Spain.

Tueſday arrived at Plymouth his Majeſty's Ship Burford, Capt. Gambier, from a Cruize, and has brought in a Spaniſh Ship, called Ignio, of 250 Tons, from St. Domingo, laden with Sugar, Coffee, and Indigo.

DUBLIN, April 17.

Extract of a Letter from Waterford, April 8.

Laſt Night 58 Marines made their Eſcape out of an armed Ship at Paſſage; this was done about 8 o'Clock in the Evening. They broke open the Arms-Cheſt, and took out Cutlaſſes and Piſtols, and have made their Way towards Carrick. They were ſeen early this Morning, headed by a deſperate White Boy, who was inliſted as a Marine, and deſerted. A Party of the Army went immediately in Purſuit of them. Ten of the White Boys were ſent here Yeſterday Morning, properly guarded, two of whom had Commiſſions in their Pockets when taken, but cannot learn by whom they were ſigned. Their Regimentals were White, faced with Red and Blue.

Since the above, we hear that the Party of Soldiers who purſued theſe Fellows had taken a Number of them, and alſo that the Army are ſo ſituated, that not one of the Levellers can poſſibly eſcape being taken.

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA (in JAMAICA) May 15.

We learn that on the 6th Inſtant, 7 Sail of our Fleet, under the Command of Capt. Hervey, were cruiſing off Cape Francois, waiting for the coming out of the French Fleet, conſiſting of 6 Sail of the Line, and three Frigates, which were unmoored, and going to ſail, but on a ſudden returned to their old Moorings; owing, it is believed, to Intelligence being given them of our Fleet.

May 22. Since our laſt arrived at Port Royal, the Ferret Sloop of War, from a Cruize off Cuba; ſhe brings Advice, that the Spaniards are ſtrongly fortifying every defenſive Part of the Iſland, having ſome Time ago had Information of the Deſigns againſt the Havannah; they brag that they will defend that Iſland much better, than their Confederates the French did Martinico.

Arrived at Port Royal, the Penzance Man of War; ſhe ſailed with Commodore Douglaſs, but the Deck falling in, by Means of ſome of her Beams giving Way, rendered her unfit for the Service.

BOSTON, June 21.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Liſbon, dated April 28, 1762.

——"The Spaniards Behaviour to this Country, which muſt now become a Principal in the War, and the Demands made by France and Spain upon this Court, not being ſubmitted to, their Ambaſſadors are therefore retired; and we expect daily that War will be declared, and Hoſtilities begin upon the Frontiers, where the Portugueſe have collected 40,000 Men for their Defence; to help them wherein the Engliſh muſt of Courſe be at the Expence of lending their Aſſiſtance; to which End a Body of Forces is ſoon expected from England and Ireland. As the Cauſe is ſo juſt, we may venture to place our Confidence in the Protection of Heaven, and to flatter ourſelves that our Enemies will be baffled in their iniquitous Schemes.—It is a diſagreeable Circumſtance to be ſituated ſo near a Seat of War; but there is no Remedy but to ſubmit patiently to our Fate, and to hope that as few bad Conſequences as poſſible will reſult from it. Under all Circumſtances and Situations, I ſhall ever remain, with much Truth," &c.—

Capt. Sooms, in whom the above Letter came, left Liſbon the fourth of May, and informs, that ſix Sail of Tranſports, with Britiſh Troops on board, were already arrived there, and that others were daily expected:——That it was reported Admiral Saunders, with his Fleet, had blocked up the Port of Cadiz, and that they expected ſoon to hear he was in Poſſeſſion of that Place.

Dobſon: They came under Convoy of the Britannia Privateer, Captain M'Pherſon of Philadelphia. Capt. Goodwin fell in with theſe Veſſels off Cape Nichola, where he alſo ſpoke with the Deptford Man of War, about the 3d Inſtant, who informed him of the Junction and Deſtination of the Fleets under Sir George Pocock, and Sir James Douglaſs, which united make 211 Sail, of which 29 are Ships of the Line, and 15 Frigates, having on board 12,000 Regular Forces, &c. Commodore Douglaſs alſo carried with him from Jamaica 2500 Slaves, and 150 free Negroes, as Buſh Cutters, Rangers, &c. the whole bound to the Havannah; an Engliſh Cutter was ſtationed in the Old Straits, where ſhe was to ply, and adviſe the Admiral if any Fleet appeared.

By Letters from Jamaica, we learn that the French Squadron which ſailed from Breſt the 23d of January laſt, conſiſting of 7 Ships of the Line, and 4 Frigates, are now blocked up by an Engliſh Squadron off Cape Francois.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 25.

We are informed, from undoubted Authority, that the Report of the Cheſterfield being gone to the Weſt-Indies is altogether groundleſs; Nothing new having happened to contradict the Purport of Captain Scaife's Letter, as publiſhed in our Paper of the 4th Inſtant.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.

From Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, we learn, that Captain Oliver, in a Privateer belonging to Providence, brought Advice, that the Richmond Frigate, with all the Bahamian Pilots on board, that were carried to Jamaica by the Bonetta, had been reconnoitring and ſurveying the Old Straits of Bahamia, and the whole Track, quite to the Havannah, and was returned to join Sir George Pocock, on the Coaſt of Hiſpaniola, where a prodigious Armament was aſſembling: That all the Shipping in Cuba were embargoed: And that there was Reaſon to believe an Embargo was likewiſe laid on all the Ports of Hiſpaniola about the Middle of May.

Captain Dewer, from Jamaica, arrived here on Tueſday laſt—Seventeen Days before his Arrival, he ſpoke with the Portmahon Man of War, Captain Kingſman, off of Cape-Nichola, who informed him, that Admiral Pocock, with 33 Sail of the Line, and about 170 Tranſports had then been ſome Time before the Havannah.

Saturday laſt arrived here the Britannia Privateer, Captain M'Pherſon, from a Cruize, and brought up with him two Prize Sloops, laden with Sugar, Coffee and Indigo, bound to St. Euſtatius and Coracoa, from Hiſpaniola——They are ſuppoſed to be valuable Veſſels.

Captain M'Pherſon was informed of the following Particulars, relating to the Engagement he had lately with a very large Spaniſh Ship, off of Laguira, by a Veſſel that was there when the Spaniard arrived, viz. That ſhe was from Spain, ſaid to be very rich, and mounted 24 Nine-pounders: That 16 of her Men were killed in the Action: That her Captain loſt his Right-arm: That many others loſt their Legs and Arms: And that as the Ship had had a very narrow Eſcape, Twenty Maſſes had been ſaid on the Occaſion.

Saturday laſt the Ship Anne, Capt. Fortin, arrived here from Briſtol, which he left the 5th of May. He ſailed under Convoy of His Majeſty's Ship Loo, of 32 Guns, Taylor Penny, Eſq; Commander, in Company with 19 Sail of other Merchantmen, for different Ports; among which were Captain Cleague for this Port; Taylor and Lewis for New-York; Kennedy and Davis for Boſton; and Dixon and Watkins for Virginia. On the 12th ult. the Loo gave Chace to, came up with, and after a ſhort Engagement took, the Jupiter Privateer of Bayonne, of 22 Guns, out 14 Days, but had taken nothing. The Captain of the Privateer informed Captain Penny, that having Notice of the Time the Briſtol Fleet intended to ſail, he and ſix others (one of which mounted 32 Guns) ſailed to intercept them, and being in great Hopes of Succeſs, were provided with Men and ſpare Officers, of which the Jupiter had four Captains, ten Lieutenants, and many Cadets on board.—— This Privateer has been very ſucceſsful, having taken, it is ſaid, 63 Prizes this War; and had been often chaſed by our Men of War, but being a remarkable faſt Sailer, always eſcaped.

On the 14th of May Captain Penny ſpoke with a Veſſel from Liſbon for Cork, the Maſter of which informed him, that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador had left the Court of Portugal; that War was expected daily to be declared betwixt the two Courts; and that the Ferrol Fleet had ſailed.

ANNAPOLIS, July 8.

Friday laſt, CHARLES GOLDSBOROUGH, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives for Dorcheſter County, was ſworn in one of his Lordſhip's Honourable Council of State in this Province, and took his Seat at the Board accordingly.

Early Yeſterday Morning, a Fire broke out in a Dwelling-Houſe belonging to Michael Macnemara, Esq; which had got to such a Head before it was discovered, that it entirely consumed the same. No Body lived in it, but as the Oven had been bak'd in the Day before, it is supposed to have taken Fire from thence. By the Vigilance of the Inhabitants, and Assistance of the Fire-Engine, it was prevented from spreading any further.

Yesterday the Ship Dragon, Captain Middleton Belt, arrived here in Six Weeks from Lisbon.

Extract of a Letter from an English Gentleman at Lisbon, to his Correspondent here:

"Lisbon, 19th May, 1762.

"As to Public Affairs of this Kingdom, we, "as well as most others, flattered ourselves that "the Spaniards never would so very unjustly, and "without the least Shadow of Reason, attack "a Neutral Nation that had never given them "Offence; but were greatly disappointed in our "Expectations; for the 27th of last Month both "the Spanish and French Ministers left this Court, "and the 11th Instant the Spaniards entered the "Frontiers in an hostile Manner, on the North, "near to Miranda. Since that several Expresses "have come to Town, and we hear they have "not yet begun to attack the Place. Two of "our Regiments are arrived from Ireland, and "5000 Men more are daily expected from Belleisle, "which, when united to 45,000 Men the Portu-guese have in the Field, we hope will be able to "frustrate the Designs of the Spaniards. What-"ever Progress they may make towards the North, "we don't apprehend they will ever be able to "interrupt the Commerce of this Metropolis."

RAN away from the Subscriber, a few Days ago, an Indented Servant, Assistant in a Store, who calls himself John King, and may now go by his true Name, William Augustus Taubert.

He carried off with him a considerable Sum of Money, which he was appointed to receive at Queen's-Town for his Master.

He is a Londoner, a young Man of a slender make and low: But he is not so young as his Aspect seems to shew, and he is yet older in Art and Experience. He had Variety of Cloaths, but chiefly affected to wear a Lead colour'd fine Sagathy Coat. He had an affected Swing in his Gait, and is very apt to intrude into Gentlemens Company, especially of the mercantile Class. He carried off with him, or perhaps has sold or exchanged, a pretty little Bay Horse, with a Star in his Forehead.

His Aunt, the Widow of the late John Rawlings, lives on the Eastern Branch of Patowmack. There he will probably make his first Stage from Annapolis, in his Way to Hampton for London.
